Stroll around the city and enjoy the overflowing culture of Marseille and Provence!
Here are our recommendations:

Programming of the MuCEM

The MuCEM, Museum of European and Mediterranean Civilizations, is a major cultural, architectural and heritage site. A must-see in Marseille. Located on 3 sites (the J4 esplanade, the Fort Saint-Jean and the Conservation and Resource Center), it offers a variety of exhibitions.

Exhibitions:

The Lambert Collection - until September 23, 2024 :

This magnificent exhibition follows Yvon Lambert's career, starting with his connection to Provençal and Mediterranean cultures, then focusing on a number of themes around which the two collections dialogue: the popular and the everyday, man and nature, poetry and literature, intimacy and existence. Mediterranean culture has shaped the destiny of the great art dealer Yvon Lambert, whose name and history resonate with the cultural riches of Provence.

Field of Visions - until 16 September 2025:

The artist Mathilde Rosier is sensitive to the question of agrarian rituals and the seasons, and has covered the façade of the Mucem Conservation and Resource Centre with some fifty glass eyes, as an invitation to come and take a closer look at the collection... These eyes form a link between the outdoor space and the indoor space dedicated to conservation.

The Great Mezze - permanent exhibition:

We've all heard that we're supposed to eat five servings of fruits and vegetables a day, but did you know this recommendation was inspired by the Cretan diet, also known as the Mediterranean diet? Check out an inspiring exhibition focussing on the history of our region!

Connectivities - Mediterranean Gallery 2 - permanent exhibition:

A History of the Great Mediterranean Port Cities of the XVI<sup>e</sup> and XVII<sup>e</sup> Centuries - Istanbul, Algiers, Venice, Genoa, Seville and Lisbon were the strategic points for power and trade.
